

LUCY HAYES HERITAGE CENTER

NEWSLETTER - FEBRUARY 2010

Dear Friends and Members Of The Lucy Hayes Heritage Center:

First, some old news, the anniversary dinner celebrating the date of the Hayes' wedding was enjoyed by thirty 'Friends'. The meal, served by Celebrations Etc, was delicious & we enjoyed the music of Tim Staab. As we sit here in the winter weather with snow and wind, it will be Spring before we know it (or at least we hope so) and time to clean up the gardens and plan the Spring Tea Luncheon for May 1st.

But for now let's think Statehood Day Celebrations on March 6, 2010. Chillicothe has so much history in connection with the founding of our State and Statehood Day. The county historical locations invite you to visit The Adena Mansion, The David Nickens Heritage Ctr, The Ross County Historical Society Museums and The Lucy Hayes Heritage Center. All four will be open with their own special activities. (See enclosed flyer) As a special treat at the 'Lucy House', the Chillicothe Ruggers will be demonstrating how to make a hooked rug and will have some finished rugs to show.

The hours may vary; but we will be open from 10:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. Refreshments will be served. Please try to visit all of the sites - I know you will enjoy it.

During this time of being closed, we are trying to record the history of all objects at The Lucy Hayes Heritage Center and do an accessioning, giving all their own special number. I really didn't realize just how much we have to show our visitors until starting this. I especially thank Linda Barrett and Grace Baer, board members, for helping with this project. If you ever made a gift of something and didn't sign a gift form please get in touch.

I also have a one day trip planned for March 25th, to LaComedia Dinner Theatre in Springboro to see "Phantom". It's been ten years since this haunting, beautiful musical has been here. As always, we travel by Noble bus, have a delicious dinner and matinee and a good time to support the Lucy Hayes Ctr. The cost will be $80.00. Please send in reservations by March 13th, filling out the form below with your check made out to The Friends of Lucy. The Board and I hope to see you on the 6th and the 25th.
